

MSS PRODUCT VISION BOARD

VISION STATEMENT (Brief):	To provide effective, secure, user-friendly and inclusive virtual healthcare solutions, enabling expectant mothers and people in remote areas and diverse communities to access essential maternity, specialised and urgent care services, improving equity, safety and continuity of community well-being across Western Australia.
 TARGET GROUP: Who are the target customers and users?	 NEEDS: What problems does it solve? What benefits of the product/system? Specify customer needs	 PRODUCT: What is the product? What are its 4-6 core features? List broad categorisations of system features	 BUSINESS GOALS: How will the product benefit the company? What are the product/system's desired benefits?
• Patients or expectant mothers, particularly people living in remote and regional communities, Aboriginal communities, and culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities. • Clinicians and allied healthcare staff, including midwives, obstetricians, radiologists, pathologists, pharmacists, and telehealth providers. • Hospital administration staff responsible for scheduling, billing, and operational workflows.	• Access to urgent, specialised and routine maternity care, particularly the four critical maternity services: pathology, imaging, pharmacy and telehealth, without needing to travel long distances. • Culturally appropriate, inclusive and accessible healthcare that addresses the unique needs of Aboriginal and CALD communities. • Convenient virtual consultations and remote patient monitoring from home. • Efficient health information management and exchange	MSS is SaaS based clinical information system (CIS) supporting four critical maternity service domains • Telehealth & Remote Care: virtual consultations and remote patient monitoring. • Pathology & Imaging Management: access, management and exchange of pathology results and imaging information. • Pharmacy & Medication Management: management and access to medication and pharmacy information.	• Establish MSS as a viable healthcare provider and expand the platform into other Australian markets. • Improve health equity and outcomes for underserved regional, Aboriginal, and CALD populations. • Improve operational efficiency. • Ensure security, privacy and regulatory compliances. • Generate revenue and long-term business value for MSS. • Build a scalable and robust platform so that MSI can handover, between patients and healthcare providers. • Simplified administrative processes, including appointment scheduling, billing and other healthcare-related tasks.	• Health Information Management & Exchange: secure access, storage and exchange of patient health information. • Appointment, Billing & Administrative Management: appointment scheduling, reminders, billing, claims processing and administrative workflows. • Data Analytics, Security & Access Management: patient data analytics, reporting, secure data protection, identity and access controls.	maintain and manage independently after project closure.

--	--	---	---